Informed Consent

Welcome! The information below is provided to assist you in understanding my services, procedures, practice policies, and your rights as a client. This document represents our professional agreement. Please read this information carefully and let me know if you have any questions.

Our work together: In my approach, I work in partnership with teenagers, adolescents and young adults to help them reach the goals they have set for themselves. Often, this work includes healing from past negative experiences and traumas, support during developmental milestones and issues connected to “stage of life” challenges. I have deep confidence in a person’s inherent knowledge of self, resilience and ability to heal and grow in order to be their whole self. I focus on client-centered work partnering with you as a guide in order to collaborate and create an individualized counseling process that feels right to you. The treatment approach modalities that I integrate draw from EMDR, narrative therapy, and mindfulness practices (including MBSR-T) for emotional regulation.

My training and experience: I am a licensed clinical social worker (LCSW) in the state of Oregon (license number L7356). I have experience working in the field of social work for over ten years, supporting individuals and communities in a variety of environments including the juvenile justice system, education and advocacy work, residential treatment, community-based work and non-profits. In my work I have developed a client-centered, strengths-based and trauma informed practice modality.

Crisis: I will provide you with crisis resources and create a safety plan with you, as clinically indicated and/or desired by you. There may be times that I am unable to respond to calls or emails in a timely manner. If you feel you are in immediate crisis please utilize crisis resources (OregonYouthLine.org (877) 968-8491) or call 911. You can also contact the Clackamas County Crisis Line (503) 655-8585, or go to the nearest emergency room.

Transitions: It is your legal right to end counseling services with me at any time. If you are considering ending services, I invite you to share feedback with me so that we can collaborate together on the next steps, including making changes, continuing to work together or referrals to other agencies/clinicians. I can also end counseling services if I believe that my services are not clinically appropriate for you and will provide referrals to other mental health resources.

Please note: it is not uncommon for clients to take breaks from regular sessions or temporarily suspend services. This practice requests that clients inform the therapist of these details in advance, as no contact for 90 days or more will be considered a termination of services.

Scheduling: To schedule appointments please contact me at 503-386-8033, you can also email me at therapy@kristenmcneese.com or through my website <https://www.kristenmcneese.com>. Please keep in mind that electronic forms of communication such as email are not as confidential as phone communication, so please be mindful of what you share in your electronic communication.

Appointments

I schedule my own appointments. Appointments are approximately 50 minutes long. Office hours will vary and session times may change to coordinate schedules.

I use an answering service to answer phone calls to the office. If it is not urgent please leave a message and I will call you back. I usually check the line daily (Monday -Friday) and generally will return your phone call within 24 hours. In a crisis situation please follow the crisis procedure stated above.

Cancellation and No-Show Policy

As a client, you are responsible for keeping your appointment and arriving on time. If for some reason you need to cancel your appointment please let me know as far in advance as possible and no later than 24 hours so that I can offer that session time to another client.

An initial late cancellation (24 hours or less) or a missed appointment will be billed at $50. A second late cancellation or missed appointment will be billed at your regular session rate.
